

2023 Round-Up

“Hold your eyes on God and leave the doing to Him.
That is all the doing you have to worry about.”

St. Jane Frances de Chantal

As we reflect on the challenges and triumphs of the past year, we are filled with a profound sense of gratitude and admiration. The year 2023 has been a test of resilience, a journey through uncertainty, and a demonstration of the indomitable spirit that defines our small community school.

In the face of adversity, our students have not only persevered but have also shown remarkable determination to continue learning and growing. The enthusiasm for knowledge, even in the midst of difficulties, has been a beacon of inspiration for us all. The thirst for education is the driving force behind the success stories that continue to unfold within our school walls.

Parents, sponsors, teachers and our volunteers, with their support, have been a pillar of strength for our students. Commitment to their well-being and education has created a sense of belonging for us all. Together, we have faced the challenges of 2023, and the bonds forged during these trying times will undoubtedly endure as a testament to the resilience of our school family.

Our dedicated staff members have gone above and beyond, with grace and determination. The creativity, adaptability and genuine care for our students is the foundation upon which our school stands. The efforts have not gone unnoticed, and we are truly grateful for the sacrifices made to ensure the continuity of education and support for our students.

As we approach the end of this financially challenging year, let us celebrate the victories, no matter how small, and cherish the moments of joy that have punctuated our journey. Our small school is not just a place of learning; it is a community that thrives on resilience, compassion, and the unwavering belief in the potential of every student.

Looking forward, let us pray that we can continue into 2024 with sufficient funding to keep our school going. May the spirit of unity and determination that has defined us this year continue to guide us towards even greater heights.

Wishing you, our valued sponsors and donors, a restful and rejuvenating Christmas season.

With gratitude and faith.
